Deanna Rascon earns 2nd Masters at U of A

Story by R. Peters

Congratulations to community member, Deanna Rascon for earning her second Master's degree with the University of Arizona.

Deanna began her higher education journey in 2012, as a student at Central Arizona College. After graduating at CAC, she decided to apply for admission to U of A. "I was very nervous and scared at the same time, didn't know what to expect, until I got an email and it was from U of A. I was scared to open it because I didn't want to be disappointed or anything. So, I waited until the end of my work day, got the courage to open the email and to read those words, 'You have been ACCEPTED'."

With that email, Deanna realized, "I am going to make my dream true" which was "walking the stage at U of A to accept my degree."

After being out of school for more than ten years, she put her heart and mind in motion and has earned; AAS in Administration of Justice; Associate of General Studies with Central Arizona College; Bachelor of Applied Science in Justice Emphasis with University of Arizona; College of Law Master of Legal Studies in Criminal Justice, and College of Law Master of Professional Studies in Indigenous Governance with U of A.

Deanna's biggest inspiration to earning her degrees has not only been her dream to walk the stage and accept her degree, it has also been "to show my kids that no matter what age you are at, you can still have dreams and you can always make your dreams come true. As long as you put all your effort and heart into it, then you will accomplish anything."

As the Court Administrator, Deanna knows that she must always keep abreast of general law practices and all the changes that take place. "As everyone knows the laws change all the time, especially in Indian Country."

She was curious about, "knowing how the law starts, how it is applied, what are the factors that surround the law, and how is the consequence determined" and says "the law in a nut shell can be very tricky on how it is used and how it is applied."

Deanna said she loved reading cases and dissecting them, "as to what I would have done if I was on the Prosecution/Defense side. After being here at the courts for over 21 years now, I have grown to want to know about the law and everything that it entails from start to finish."

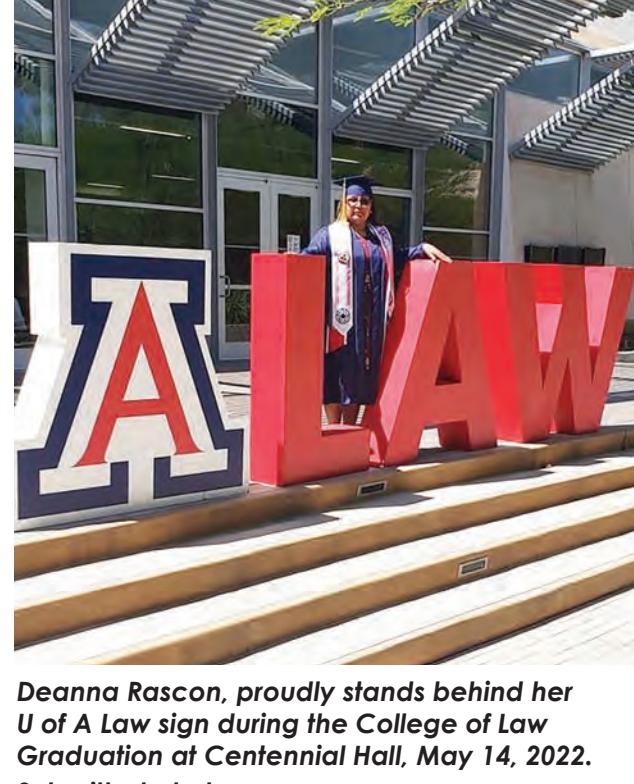

Deanna has had overcome many hurdles and obstacles on her journey, "There were many times that I had cried and wanted to quit because it was a lot to take on; being employed full time, full time student taking at least 12 or more credits per semester, being a mom and then being a grandma."

She was very strict about her time management, setting priorities and staying true to them. "I missed out on a lot of family functions, as well as school functions that my kids were involved in."

She was a great example for her children when it came to studying. "I always told them don't neglect your studies. So, I had to practice what I had preached to them, get my studies in and then I can have some free time. I would always try to get ahead on my assignments so that I could have some time to relax and enjoy some free time."

In addition to her work and mom duties, as well her studies, Deanna was driving to Tucson for classes. "The drives to Tucson for classes 2 or 3 times out the week was tiring, but after a while I got used to it and then it didn't seem to me that Tucson was so far, it was like taking a drive to Casa Grande. I would go to work most the day then leave work and go straight to class and at times didn't get home until 9 or 10 at night. But, still stayed up until 1 or 2 in the morning to complete homework, to do it all again the next day. I always kept telling myself, it will be worth it at the end."

On Friday, May 13, about a dozen bikers-runners met at the staging point near State Route 347 and Louis Johnson Rd. to begin the Ak-Chin leg of the Arizona Law Enforcement Torch Run for Special Olympics.

The group met at Ak-Chin Police department for a brief safety meeting before their 8am start for the 6-mile portion. Safety vehicles were positioned in the front and rear of the group as they traveled 347.

The runners kept a steady pace, as bikers followed closely behind to keep a tight group along the highway.

Once the group made it to the intersection of 347 and Farrell Rd., they headed for Ak-Chin Circle Elements Event Center where another group of about a dozen walkers awaited to begin their 2.5-mile trek to Milton "Paul" Antone Memorial Park.

Once all bikers-runners and walkers made it to the park, a delicious luncheon of hamburgers and hot dogs, cooked up by PD Chief Manuel Garcia awaited their hungry appetites.

As everyone enjoyed their meal, transportation was available to take participants back to their starting points.

Elder Center celebrates Mother's Day with crafting and tea

As Mother's Day lands on the second Sunday in May, the Ak-Chin Elder center celebrated the special mothers in the Community with a crafty lunch party on Monday, May 9th.

Gathering during the latter morning at the elder center, senior moms joined with elder center staff on creating adorable floral spring inspired hats.

These perfect gardening hats were decorated with an abundance of colorfully, cute flowers and ribbons. With their creativity these mothers got to work on designing the most perfect hat for their next special occasion, such as their tea party luncheon.

After everyone had completed their project, the mothers were seated for the special lunch. Set out on their tables were pretty tea cup sets with spoons. Afterwards staff members brought out a yummy spread of desserts which were placed on tiered serving trays. All these special ladies had a nice time crafting and congregating.

Mothers enjoy their Mother's Day craft.

Something about these hats brought a smile to their faces.

Keeping Contact with Emergency Responders During an Outage

In the event of cellular service disruptions, such as the one that impacted Verizon customers earlier this month, it is important that Maricopa residents know they have options for contacting emergency responders. Federal regulations have made this a priority.

The FCC requires wireless providers to transmit all 911 calls to an emergency call center, regardless of whether the caller subscribes to the provider's service.

All wireless phones, even those that are not subscribed to or supported by a specific carrier, can still call 911. In many cases even if a phone shows no signal bars, calls to 911 will still get through. In the event of an outage that impacts service to the emergency call center in Maricopa, the calls are automatically rerouted to another call center (in our case to Chandler).

Maricopa and all of Pinal County also announced last year the addition of the ability to send a text message to reach 911 emergency. While texting is available, voice calls to 911 are more expedient and provide much more information to 911 call centers.

How to text 911

- Enter the numbers '911' in the 'To' field on your mobile device.

- ALWAYS provide your location and the nature of your emergency in your original text message.

- 'Send' your message.

received at all.

- Text-to-911 is not available if your cellular device is in 'roaming' status.

- You will receive a 'bounce back' message when texting is not available.

- Photos and videos cannot be sent to 911.

- Do not text and drive!

Deanna encourages, "If you have the dream, then go for it and don't give up no matter how bad it may get, it will be all worth it at the end. Don't ever be afraid of failure, because it happens; dust yourself off and continue to pursue your dreams. After not setting foot on a college campus for over 10 years after I graduated high school, I got the courage and it felt good to be able to get back at pursuing my dreams."

She also shared this quote she read when accompanying her oldest daughter Anyssa to Florida to get her situated for school. "All dreams can come true if we have the courage to pursue them." - Walt Disney.

Now that she has earned her second Masters she thinks she is ready for a bigger challenge. "I

Ak-Chin Health Education welcomes community for in-person activities

Over the past two months Ak-Chin Health Education has been working hard to provide options for their physical activities and programs. They recently provided the option for an in-person and virtual walk/run for the May 4th Be With You event and the Melin Melin Color Run.

Both events had a great turnout. "The turnout for Melin Melin Color Run in-person event was 37 participants and for virtual participants was 80 participants. The turnout for the May 4th Be With You in-person event was 36 participants, and currently 93 participants virtually." Martina Peters, Health Educator shared.

Both events were scheduled as a non-competitive 2-mile course. "We tried to keep the events family oriented for the first two in-person events."

Right now, Martina says the virtual option is more popular, as 75-80% register for virtual. When asked who were most likely to participate she shares, "From event to event we do have numbers fluctuate, however on average we have about 60-70% of all participants that are ACIC members and residents. So far, those groups lead with the largest turnout for our events."

Martina and her program have been providing virtual events since the pandemic. She learned about the virtual events from previous events she's participated in. "I first heard of virtual events from an event that I used to run in. I thought that was really neat and used this idea."

"I felt that during the pandemic we still needed to promote exercise and host events in the community as much as possible. So far it has been working out really great as we have hosted every regular event that we normally would from May the 4th Be With You in 2020 to now. Two years later and 17 virtual events and we are still going strong. However, the next step will be trying transition back to in-person fully and with our competitive races."

Health Education will be hosting their next event in June, the Stage Run, which will be virtual. Their next big in-person event will be the GLOW RUN in August, with hopes of cooler temperatures.

Providing both options has been a great way to continue to promote health and exercise in the community. Martina hopes the community likes having both options. "If one cannot attend in-person event, there is still an opportunity to complete their walk/run virtually. We hope that it makes these events flexible for all who would like to participate."

Health Education would like to thank the departments and individuals that help make our in-person events possible. For the Melin Melin COLOR Run, we would like to thank the Ak-Chin Youth Council, Joseph Davis, Noahli Antone, Daria & Doria Garcia, Haedin DePaola, and Zachary Garcia - thank you for your continued partnership and help in this event. We would like to thank our DJ Clayton Antone - thank you for playing the best music to get our participants ready to walk and run! For both the events, a special thanks to Waylon Antone for t-shirt designs, and Shauna-Rae Brown for route maps. We also would like to thank Ak-Chin Public Works, Ak-Chin Fire Department, Ak-Chin Police Department, Ak-Chin Security, and Ak-Chin Recreation for your assistance in route maintenance, safety of our participants, and for utilizing surrounding areas of Recreation facility.

A huge thank you to our participants!! It was great to see individuals in-person, we missed you all. We hope to see more individuals at our next in-person events.

Running or walking everyone is having fun at the Health Education events.
