Ak-Chin's 2023 Masik Tas brought in heavy numbers for the four-day weekend, starting December 14-17, that offered free carnival and rodeo events for everyone to enjoy, located just west of Ak-Chin Circle and Harrah's Ak-Chin Casino.

Thursday opened up with a morning roping and a Community Only carnival, allowing Ak-Chin families the opportunity to enjoy the carnival all to themselves a day early, taking advantage of the short lines and free games.

Bright and early Friday morning there were many young buckaroos up and at 'em for the Junior Rodeo. We had quite a few community members who participated and some were able to make good times and win some prize money.

Community members Caleb Ugalde won the 6-9 All-Around Champion; winning the Goat Tail Pull and placing in the Ribbon Roping and Calf Riding; while Miss Paislee White, hung on tight for a hard-earned 3rd place in the Sheep Riding.

Friday evening included the Bull Bash, where Ak-Chin's Marcus Stephens placed 3rd in the Open Bull Riding.

Friday night the Community brought out country superstars Midland, for a free outdoor concert. You could see steady traffic turning west on Farrell, as many out of towners drove the 347 for the free show, that did not disappoint.

Midland's show; they performed on the SAM 575 stage its biggest mobile stage you can get." David "DT" Trujillo, Ak-Chin Circle Operations Manager shared.

"Months of planning and coordinating with multiple departments went into making this a successful event... many moving parts with a band of this size and everything has to go right to make it a successful event so you need to have a plan A, B, C!"

Opening up for Midland was Jesse Colt, who also played at Ak-Chin Circle's Luxe after party, which "did hit capacity for the night," said Trujillo.

Saturday brought more than just free entertainment and the start of the Open Rodeo, there was also a free giveaway, compliments of Ak-Chin Farms and R&G Potatoes who gifted community members a free 10-lb bag of potatoes, later that day it was opened to the public as well. Many people shared their gratitude on the community's FB for the free spuds.

Saturday evening had another great entertainment lineup, as Harrah's Ak-Chin Casino brought Parker McCollum to their stage at Harrah's Event Center, for a sold-out show.

Ak-Chin Circle offered free entertainment on outdoor stage with Los Hermanos Cuatro, Louie S. Eric Y Su Group Massore, Las Fenix and headliner Los Palominos, Da Krazie Pimpz performed at the Luxe afterparty.

Sunday's events included the finals for the Rodeo and Wild Horse Race events and one more day of carnival fun and food.

It was a great time to see all the smiling faces at this year's Masik Tas. Although it was a bit chilly it did not keep people from coming out to have a good time and celebrate our Masik Tas and the holidays.
