Harrah's Ak-Chin Casino to Re-Open May 15, Social Distancing Protocols in Place

(MARICOPA, Ariz. – May 11, 2020) – The Ak-Chin Tribal Council has approved the re-opening of Harrah's Ak-Chin Casino, effective 9 am on Friday, May 15, 2020.

Harrah's management has put in place a variety of social distancing measures for the health and safety of casino guests and employees. These include:

- The casino floor will be open with slot machine banks arranged to allow for proper social distancing and with limited seating at Blackjack tables. The Poker Room, Keno and BINGO will not be open at this time.
- Hand-sanitizing stations throughout the casino floor, masks for all employees and increased cleaning service in all common areas and throughout the back of the house.

- Dunkin' Donuts®, Copper Cactus, Chop Block & Brew, and Agaves will be open for food/beverage service, with social distancing protocols in place. The Buffet, Oak & Fork and Laurel Lounge will not be open at this time.
- Based on the number of guest reservations, the resort and tower guestrooms will also open on May 15 for stays beginning that evening.

Additionally, The Events Center at Harrah's Ak-Chin, including all events and conference, Valet and Spa and Fitness Center will remain closed at this time.

“Over the past several weeks the Tribal Council, along with Caesars management, have been monitoring the situation here in Arizona and across the country, making sure we had the best and most accurate information needed to re-open the casino,” said Robert Livingston, general manager of Harrah's Ak-Chin Casino. “We look forward to welcoming back our casino guests in the coming days.”

Ak-Chin Indian Community sues federal government to release overdue COVID-19 relief for native tribes

Ak-Chin among tribes seeking release of $8 billion in relief funding

The Ak-Chin Indian Community and multiple other tribes have filed suit against the U.S. Treasury Department and seek a federal court order to release $8 billion in promised but overdue COVID-19 relief funding.

The money was allotted as part of the federal Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act to help native tribes respond to the COVID-19 crisis. The legislation mandated the U.S. Treasury Department disburse the funds no later than April 26, 2020. The relief funding is needed to avert economic and fiscal devastation, as tribal businesses and gaming facilities remain shuttered and tribal governments have shouldered significant added costs in responding to the public health crisis.

“All that we ask is for the timely release of federal relief aid that was promised so that the Ak-Chin Indian Community and other Tribal governments may respond to this unprecedented crisis,” said Ak-Chin Chairman Robert Miguel. “Indian Country has suffered disproportionately under this pandemic. As with other tribes, we've declared an emergency and closed tribal businesses and gaming enterprises in order to mitigate the outbreak. Without swift federal assistance, we will have no choice but to furlough tribal employees and make cuts to essential services our people depend upon.

“If the Treasury Department will not honor its promise of relief to native peoples during their time of need, we trust a federal court will make this right.”

Tribal plaintiffs in the case include the: Ak-Chin Indian Community; Agua Caliente Band of Cahuilla Indians; Chickasaw Nation; Choctaw Nation of Oklahoma; Cherokee Nation; Northern Arapaho Tribe of the Wind River Reservation; Snoqualmie Indian Tribe; and Yurok Tribe of the Yurok Reservation.

Southern Dunes Arroyo Grille opens dining room with new safety measures

The dining area of Arroyo Grille at Ak-Chin Southern Dunes Golf Club opened up officially on Monday, May 11 as per the executive order from Arizona Governor Doug Ducey, with restrictions and safety measures in place to minimize exposure to COVID-19.

With a proactive approach and the safety of guests and staff of the utmost importance, every server and associate go through a combination of self-monitored and manager symptom check for potential COVID-19 symptoms before each shift.

Physical distancing of at least six feet is practiced by staff and encouraged to guests and golfers. Tables are spaced out with a limited seating maximum occupancy inside of 20 guests, and 30 guests on the patio.

The tables are up and active, however, chairs have been removed from out of service tables with signs expressing physical distancing encouragement.

“We've started using the verbiage ‘physical distancing,’ not ‘social distancing’ because now that restaurants are open, we just want them to be spaced far enough out,” says Ak-Chin Southern Dunes Golf Club Manager Brady Wilson.

Employees are wearing masks and gloves with frequent sanitation of all the traffic areas. Each table has individual hand sanitizer bottles for the guests to use and take with them.

The experience is different now in the way that when guests come in and sit down, they are given a paper menu with the Arroyo Grille phone number on it, which guests can take home and are encouraged to continue to use for take-out orders.

To be safe, there are currently no salt and pepper shakers or sugar boats or anything similar for guests to touch, but packets are available. Even the pens that servers use to give to guests to sign with are one time-use and sanitized before use.

“I think everyone, including the staff, is in a positive mood, happy to be physically distancing and practicing CDC protocols; but I think also happy to being one step closer to normal,” says Wilson.

“The biggest positive we have has been our staff and our

WE MISS OUR ELDERS!

Above, Elder cooks, Rene Carlyle and Elizabeth Chavez prepare home-cooked meals for Ak-Chin Elders on Tuesday, May 12. Elders can pick up the curbside meals right in front of the Elder Center, where they will be met without having to leave their vehicle. Meanwhile, homebound elders continue to have their meals delivered to their place of residence.

We are very happy the Ak-Chin Indian Community's "Stay at Home" order will be lifted on May 15, 2020. However, due to the COVID-19, the Ak-Chin Indian Community Elders are still at an elevated risk of serious illness.

It is uncertain when it will be safe to open the Elder Center once again. We want to serve the elders in the best way possible and are rethinking and recreating how we serve the elders during the COVID-19 pandemic.

The Ak-Chin Elder Center will remain closed for congregate meals and activities at this time. We are delivering lunch to the homebound elders. We also have our friendly curbside service at the Elder Center for elders to drive in and pick up their lunch.

Flash sits patiently in his chair at the Elder center, just waiting for the right time to get together with all his hajun for some good times and good food. Until that time comes, he is practicing social distancing.

If elders are interested in requesting a meal, please call the Elder Center at 520-568-1760.

our employees. They are diligent about cleanliness and they're committed to providing our guests with the best experience."

As for golf, there is more work that goes into cleaning, preparing, and sanitizing after a golfer than ever before. There is more labor and staff involved, which takes more time.

There are traffic-limiting factors in place as well. As golf is traditionally played as a foursome, now if you book as a twosome, you play alone as a twosome. If you play as a threesome, you play alone as a threesome and will not have a single paired with you. Single players will also play alone for now.

A couple times every hour is blocked to space out the golfers, limiting the range to 10 spots, maintaining the physical distancing on the course.

"It's been an honor for us and we take a lot of pride in the fact that we were one of the few enterprises that were allowed to stay open during the shutdown and our goal was to be a shining light of hope for the Community," said Wilson

At Arroyo Grille, daily lunch specials are served seven days a week. The dinner specials are still in place, with fish fry night on Wednesdays, Kansas City strip steak night on Thursdays and prime rib night on Fridays and Saturdays.

The Summer Six Pack special is available earlier than usual for golfers, which includes 25% off at the golf shop, 20% off at Arroyo Grille, six rounds of championship summer golf, six Callaway Chrome soft golf balls, six rounds on #miniDunes, six beverages and a custom Southern Dunes bag tag for $159.00.

Ak-Chin Regional Airport repairs near completion

The repairs at Ak-Chin Regional Airport from the crash that sent a small, single-engine plane into the main airport building on September 10, 2019 are coming closer to completion, with an end of May date set.

According to Airport Manager Tim Costello, the contract for repairs was awarded last year but there was considerable delay in getting started as the coronavirus hindered the process of getting the building permit.

The work picked up in April after the building permit was issued by Pinal County. Initially after the crash, there was a clean-up of debris. A tarp was placed over the hole in the roof and exterior wall.

The permanent work involved demolition of the damaged area, replacement of the steel framing, replacement of the damaged roof sheeting and foam roof, exterior wall sheeting, stucco and paint. Inside, drywall was replaced, textured and painted.

Not much remains to repair, with only carpet replacement, some electrical light replacements and a final clean-up ahead.

The adjoining space in the building was initially built to be a residential apartment, and this is where Costello temporarily has his office, which was separated from the damaged area.

The apartment had a ground floor kitchen area that became the temporary "terminal" public space. The airfield has continued to operate without skipping a beat even during the accident because the accident site is far enough from the runway.

"It was an intense experience," said Costello who was in the building at the time of the accident. "The two on board the aircraft were quite lucky to hit the building...where it hit. The building was 'soft' there and it had a cushioning effect."

Both people on board the plane survived the crash with serious but not life-threatening injuries.

Costello says that the National Transportation Safety Board is investigating the accident, as they do with all crashes involving certified aircraft. Their process is long and involved and is likely to take a full year, before they come up with a probable cause of the accident.

Home remodels in Community

For three homes in the community a much-needed remodeling is currently taking place. It's been a long time coming for the families waiting for their "new" homes and soon they will have a new roof over their heads.

Ak-Chin Project Manager, Casey Turgeon from Capital Projects provided an update on the homes currently under remodel.

- A.R. Mays completed construction of home building pads starting in November and completed in mid-December 2019.
- Project went through public bidding process for vertical construction in December 2019 and January 2020. The vertical construction portion was awarded to Pimmex Construction
- Pimmex Construction broke ground on the 3-home demo rebuild project in the beginning of February.
- The home on Vincent has completed the outside stucco phase, and finished the drywall stage, and considered about 55% done.
- The 1st home on Farrell Road is at the outside stucco phase and has started drywall phase, and considered about 50% done.
- The 2nd home on Farrell is at the mechanical and electrical rough in phase and will be starting insulation phase, followed by drywall, and is considered about 45% done.

"If there are no unforeseen construction issues the first home is expected to deliver in late July, with the other two homes following closely behind." Casey shared.

These three homes will be the only home remodels for the year 2020. Hopefully, with more funding and Council approval more homes will see changes in future years.

RATTLESNAKES!!

Everyone knows living in the beautifully barren southwest comes with sightings of some of the wildest and deadliest creatures in Arizona.

This non-friendly reptile was captured by Ak-Chin Fire recently and was safely released into the desert, far, far, away from the public.

Our state has 19 different species of rattlesnakes, making AZ the place with the largest diversity of rattlesnakes in the world.

So, during the warmer parts of the year the deadly cold-blooded reptiles re-emerge from the ground to bask in the warm temperatures and become nocturnal when temperatures rise.

Here in the community there has been a rash of sightings of rattlesnakes and those sightings will continue to grow as the summer months hit. Here is some important information on the snakes themselves.

- ∴ Rattlesnakes are the top predator in Arizona, these snakes can be found in your neighborhood, around your home and even at your front door. So, being vigilant when walking outdoors is very crucial for everyone's safety.
- ∴ Keep in mind that the snakes are not out to harm you, but if antagonized they will defend themselves as any creature would.
- ∴ Keeping your distance is the best way to avoid their venomous fangs. The snake will signal if it feels threatened by your presence by rattling its tail, once you hear the eerie sound that's your warning to stay away or else it will give you a taste of its venom.
- ∴ In most cases rattlesnake bites are not life threatening but that does not mean one should not receive medical attention immediately when bitten.
- ∴ The rattlesnake will go through multiple defense stages before striking, upon seeing anything other than their prey, they will camouflage as a way to keep themselves undetected for no further interactions.
- ∴ Secondly, the snake will try to get away to avoid any confrontations by slithering away to take cover so it can continue on its way, and
- ∴ The third line of defense is of course the strike. If the snake feels threatened and has no means of "escape" they will defend themselves; the snake will coil back their heads setting up in a "strike" pose and will rattle their tails giving a warning before striking.

If you have any issues with rattlesnakes in the Community, please contact the Ak-Chin Police Department at (520)-568-1200 for non-life-threatening issues. If someone has been bitten by a rattlesnake please call 911.

New Business Hours are Monday through Sunday 7:00am to 6:00pm.

Please keep us in mind for your transportation needs.

Need a ride? Call: 520-568-1630 - Call or Text: 520-340-0382

Demand-Response Service Schedule: Monday-Sunday from 7:15am to 5:45pm.

ON DEMAND RESPONSE SERVICE

Ak-Chin Tribal Transit focuses on Safety, Reliability and Efficiency.

IMPORTANT DETAILS ABOUT ON DEMAND SERVICES

- The date and time of travel
- Your pick-up time and address
- Your destination address and time of arrival
- Your return time and address if those services are necessary
- Verify whether you will be using a mobility aid such as a wheelchair, walker or service animal.
- Confirm total amount of passengers that will be riding

SAFETY
For your safety, please stand back and do not attempt to load until the vehicle has come to a complete stop. Standing on the vehicle while it is in motion is not permitted until the vehicle has come to a complete stop. Repeated offenses of safety will result in the passenger losing riding privileges. Guardians must be with their children during boarding and disembarking from the vehicle for the safety of all passengers in your group. If children try to board without the presence of their guardian, we will hold boarding until the guardian arrives

BE READY FOR YOUR TRIP
When making a reservation, you will be given an approximate pick up time. Please keep in mind that this is an approximate and while we do our best to always be on time, safety is our priority. Please be ready and waiting for the vehicle. Once your trip is scheduled and you board the vehicle, you may not change your destination. If changing your destination is absolutely necessary, please understand we may not be able to accommodate your existing drop of time requested. Last minute changes will not be allowed to disrupt other passenger scheduled times.

PASSENGER ASSISTANCE
Drivers are not allowed to lose sight of their vehicle at any time. Transit staff are only allowed to leave their seat in order to assist a passenger. Please note that Transit staff will not go into your home or knock on doors.

NO SHOWS
If you are not present when the vehicle arrives, the driver will wait five minutes. After five minutes, the driver must proceed with the route and the passenger will be marked as a no-show. After three no-shows, our services will be declined to you for 30 days. On demand services at times can run on a heavy schedule. Please understand that once a passenger arrives at their destination the driver will not wait for a passenger to get back on the vehicle. They will proceed with the route unless special accommodations were already made with dispatch. We can always be scheduled to return and take you to another location at a future time.

SEATBELTS
All Transit vehicles are equipped with seatbelts. In compliance with state law, Ak-Chin Tribal Transit requires you to wear your seatbelt at all times during transport. This is for your safety and the safety of others. Any passenger refusing to wear their seatbelt will not be granted services.

WHEELCHAIR SECURITY
The Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) title 49 states that Transit "may require that wheelchair users make use of securement systems for their mobility devices." This section gives Ak-Chin Tribal Transit the right to choose whether or not wheelchairs must be tied down. We exercise this right and insist on securing the wheelchair. We require a four point securement. If the chair cannot be secured using this method, the tie down will be completed as effectively and safely as possible. Our staff is trained in proper tie-down techniques. Customers that do not want their wheelchair secured may not be transported.

CARRY-ON ITEMS
To ensure the safety of our passengers, large quantities of items will be placed in the securely in the rear of the vehicle. Carts or strollers must be folded prior to boarding, and may need to be secured once inside. Open food and non-alcoholic beverages are acceptable as long as you use the appropriate waste receptacles and be considerate of other passengers. Trash left on the vehicle is a violation. Abuse of our policies will result in the passenger losing riding privilege. Smoking is not allowed.

CANCELLING A RIDE
If a trip needs to be cancelled, you are urged to cancel it as early as possible. We ask for a 15 minute notice. If a 15 minute notice is not given, you will be considered a no show. Reliable and on time transportation can be difficult to achieve when proper protocols are not followed.

Please keep us in mind for your transportation needs.
Need a ride? Call: 520-568-1630 Call or Text: 520-340-0382
